MY POINT OF VIEW

GOOD AFTERNOON

May I begin my first set of notes by recording how delighted I am to have accepted the position of Player Manager to the Wigan Athletic Football Club.

I have already heard from several sources how impatient the Board of Directors and the supporters are to have success, and I can assure you I intend to bring success to Springfield Park. The players and myself will need your backing if we are to make progress, but it may take a little time to fit all the pieces of the jigsaw together. I intend to carry out a thorough inspection over the last few weeks of the season before sitting down to plan next season's campaign.

I would like to thank Fred Eyre for all the help he has already given me. He has done a great job and I hope we can continue to work together in the future in the same friendly and productive way we have done over the past few days.

I hope we can get off to a good start today against Rochdale.

Best Wishes,

GREAT NAMES FROM THE PAST

BY HAROLD ASHURST

STAYING with the successful Allan Brown team of the 1960's brings us to one of the best, and certainly one of the most popular, centre halves ever to put on the Wigan Athletic shirt — Alf Craig.

A powerfully built man, Alf Craig was signed from Blackpool, where he had enjoyed a very successful playing career and that success was to continue at Springfield Park. Alf soon became a big favourite with the Latics fans, who admired his no-nonsense style and his authority on the field. He was noted for his fearsome tackling and his heading ability was second to none. This solidly built and robust player was to make a major contribution to the success of Allan Brown's well disciplined and organised team.

There is always one incident which stands out when the name of Alf Craig is mentioned amongst supporters, and that, of course, was the famous "no goal" incident against Tranmere Rovers in 1966. The setting was a first round F.A. Cup replay at Springfield Park, played in a blinding snow-storm. Latics had made an excellent draw at Prenton Park on the previous Saturday and a huge crowd was present to see the replay. The League side were winning by the only goal of the game, when, in the dying seconds, Alf fired in a terrific shot that almost broke the back of the Tranmere net. Wigan Athletic fans went wild; some thinking Latics had equalised; but others because the referee had disallowed the goal, claiming he had blown for full-time before the ball had entered the net. A cruel story was passed around after the match that the referee had a 10 o'clock train to catch and did not want to miss it by playing extra time! True or not, Alf Craig has earned a special mention in Wigan Athletic's history by the referee's decision on that occasion.

Alf eventually took over from Allan Brown as player manager, but did not particularly enjoy the role, and left to join Netherfield, as a player, the following season. He joined up with a number of ex-Latics players, and the Kendal side not only enjoyed a successful run, but gained great satisfaction by defeating Wigan Athletic.

Alf Craig is a regular visitor at Springfield Park for Football League fixtures, and now lives at Hindley. Of course, his footballing days are over, but his powerful physique is still put to good use in his job as a Prison Officer at a local Borstal.

TUESDAY night's game at Wrexham marked the long awaited return to action of Frank Corrigan.

In his first competitive game since his ankle operation he came through it very well and should soon be challenging again for a first team place.

George Urquhart who has also had a troublesome ankle also played and felt no adverse reaction in an experienced midfield role alongside Frank Corrigan and David McMullan.

I feel that we have lacked a bit of cover in the fullback positions, and with this in mind, have decided to give Lawrence Tierney a run at right back. He possesses many natural qualities, is a good passer of the ball, reads the game well, and, I feel, he could have a better opportunity to break into the first team in this position, rather than his customary midfield role, in view of the number of players competing in that area.

The remaining reserve fixtures have now taken on a new importance, because after a change in management, it sometimes means a fresh opportunity for any player who may not have figured in the previous manager's plans.

I have no doubts that Larry Lloyd will be having a close look at all the reserve team players between now and the end of the season, and hopefully, he will be pleased with what he sees.

I WOULD like to place on record, and bring to the public's attention, the magnificent job being done by those members of my staff responsible for the day to day operation of our lottery activities. All too often their valuable contribution is taken for granted, and this should not be the case. In recent weeks, we have not only introduced two new tickets — the Astra and the Bingo — but have also converted agencies from the Springfield Rose operation, increased the frequency at which lotteries are held, and put into action the re-cycling procedures which help us to avoid much of the wastage of resources that can occur when tickets lie dormant and unsold. Carol, Christine, Deirdre and Terry out on the road, and Bill and Helen in the office, have taken all the aggravation in their stride, and their dedication to their task has been an example for all in the club to follow. The Wigan Athletic Football Club is also very fortunate to have quality agents who themselves have responded magnificently to the challenge of the new opportunities offered. The results of the combined efforts are shown in the increased revenue being fed into the very hungry mouth of the Football Club. It is a great pity that we could not have made our changes in the pre-Christmas months, when our fund-raising activities struggled, but it gives the Commercial Department a great deal of satisfaction to know that, at a time when the Club needs it most, it can deliver the goods. Please continue to give us your support, and, if you can possibly oblige, sign up as an agent today at our office.

We are pleased to acknowledge the sponsoring of today's game by Heatwave Thermal Insulation Specialists of Ashton-in-Makerfield who carry out industrial insulation contracts on heating and ventilating duct-work and pipe-work. Today's match ball has been donated by James D. Philbin Limited, Henhurst Bridge, Chapel Lane, Wigan WN3 5DH, telephone no's. Wigan 46690 and 48164. This firm is the town's leading supplier of Business Machines, Office Furniture and Equipment, Electronic Calculators, Computer Peripheral Equipment, Dictating Machines, Photocopying Machines and Supplies, Commercial Stationery and Printing and Drawing Office Equipment and Sundries. Please support these local firms who have shown a great interest in our club for some little time. Enjoy today's game.

Jack Sudworth, Commercial Manager.

Springfield Park, Wigan. 4th March, 1981.

Dear Readers,

We recently received a very lengthy letter from our keen supporter Mr. S.J. Halliwell. Unfortunately his letter was too long for the space available, so I trust he will excuse my abbreviation of his suggestions. Hoping to hear from you soon,

Jack Sudworth, Commercial Manager.

20, Conway Road, Hindley Green, Wigan. 15th February, 1981.

Dear Sir,

I feel I must make the following points:-

1. When the reserve team are at home and the first team away in mid-week fixtures, could it not be arranged that the first team score be given from time to time over the loudspeakers?
2. Is there no way that the club could issue a photocopied team sheet for reserve team fixtures?
3. It is not time that the primitive toilet facilities on the ground were improved?
4. Could we not advertise various club activities and facilities in the spaces at present not taken up for ground advertising?
5. Could we not have the teams announced as near as possible to kick-off time, since not everyone buys a programme? It is just as important to know the visiting team and match officials as one's own team.

All best wishes to the team and the management. The majority of our supporters are behind the club 100%.

Yours faithfully,
S.J. Halliwell.

THIS afternoon we are delighted to welcome to Springfield Park the directors, management, staff and players of the Rochdale Football Club. Our near neighbours have enjoyed a revival of fortune under manager Peter Madden this season, and are sure to provide us with stern opposition.

At the end of last season, when many were predicting that League Football would not survive at Spotland, their strong hearted directors and supporters buckled down to the task of reviving the fortunes of a club which has always had a good name for hospitality and endeavour, whatever the strains imposed by outside economic forces and all the cruel twists of fate which seem to be visited upon clubs in the lower reaches of the Football League. The spirit of comradeship and dedicated hard work is often quoted as the hallmark of two of Rochdale's most famous personalities — the late Gracie Fields and that formidable M.P. Cyril

Smith — similar virtues have been displayed over the years by many unsung heroes of the Rochdale Football Club. This year, the character which has been built into the club over many years has turned a desperate situation into one of hope and ambition for the future.

After having things almost all our own way in our first two seasons in League Football, we were comprehensively beaten at Spotland last October, and, while our own players will be anxious to erase the memory of that disastrous afternoon, the Rochdale team will be equally keen to show that our most recent encounter was no flash in the pan. Certainly, whatever their fortunes in the latter part of the season, our visitors have already done enough to suggest that they will have no re-election worries this time.

We look forward to a competitive game played in a sporting manner by two clubs which are proud of their Lancastrian heritage.

WRITTEN QUOTATIONS ON REQUEST

FROM the bar staff and members of the committee, a very good afternoon to our many members and friends, and a warm welcome also to visiting supporters from Rochdale.

On Monday of this week the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Supporters Club took place, to elect a new committee. After a rather short meeting, the following members were elected — Chris Coffey, John Prior, Jimmy Hoy and Ken Ward, along with Mel Lowe (Secretary). Fred Clemson and myself (the Directors' nominees) forming the General Committee.

We have several ideas to help the finances of the club, one being the formation of a "300 Club", to be launched next week. Anyone interested can contact me or any other member of the committee for details.

I would like to thank our director, Mr. Charlton, who, after the meeting had ended, circulated with the members for an informal chat about the running of the club.

Commencing Wednesday, 11th March, 1981, our Stewardess Nellie, is starting an "Over 60's Club", to operate between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. All are welcome to attend — members or not.

In our last programme I commented about the unveiling of a plaque in memory of Peter Woods.

This ceremony will now take place tonight (Saturday), having been postponed from last week.

Our programme of entertainment for this weekend is as follows: - Saturday - A very good female vocalist — ANGIE. Sunday — Local talent in the form of singer ALAN LEWIS.

We need your support, so why not call in for a pint after the match.

Stuart Cooper
Chairman

FOURTH Division clubs are really going to town on Sunday soccer. So much that, when Rochdale pack their boots after today's game at Springfield Park, they will barely have time to clean off the dirt before they are in action again — tomorrow. "Dale" have agreed to tackle Bradford City at Valley Parade, in a move which will ease City's cash-flow crisis. Last week's attempt to play on Sunday was wiped out by the weather. Meanwhile, Darlington, the pioneers of Sunday soccer in the Fourth Division, almost trebled their usual gate for the visit of Mansfield Town a couple of weeks back.

Halifax Town are bidding to get the crowds flocking back to the Shay in a very unusual way, — by inviting school children to their mid-week games which have an afternoon kick-off. The club switched a recent game from an evening kick-off and offered free admission to local children who were on half-term holiday. They also plan to distribut 1,000 complimentarys for a forthcoming League game.

York City, looking to the future, have signed two youngsters as full time professionals — John Bentham and Joe Mulhall have recently put pen to paper. Still in Yorkshire, Bradford City have currently got six players on their transfer list including fifteen-goal leading scorer Bobby Campbell and goalkeeper Steve Smith. Moving on, after a short period with Crewe Alexandra, former Manchester United star Jimmy Greenhoff has left Gresty Road in time to join American League side Toronto Blizzard.

Southend United, who have conceded just three goals at home in league games this term, dropped only their second point of the season at Roots Hall when Doncaster held them to a goalless draw. Meanwhile, Peterborough United's F.A. Cup exploits seem to have cost them dearly. Since they were ousted by Manchester City they have fallen to two South coast sides- Torquay United, and, even more convincingly, at A.F.C. Bournemouth last weekend.

SCENE & HEARD

THE recent announcement by Scunthorpe United that the club did not intend to operate a reserve side in Season 1981/1982, coming so soon after the warning from a prominent Football League official about the need for those within the game to show common sense when looking for wage increases, is the first indication of the thinking which will determine financial planning at most clubs during the close season.

There can be little doubt that big and small alike are feeling the pinch as the economic recession bites even deeper, and, almost daily, one hears of one club or another facing cash flow problems and games being organised to assist struggling clubs at all levels. If the mighty Manchester United and Liverpool are forced into measures to safeguard their financial futures, then, as one progresses down the soccer scale, life must be very hard indeed. For too long clubs have lived beyond their means, excusing their profligacy on the grounds of attracting better quality players and providing first class entertainment. Unfortunately, those who do not frequent the terraces as a matter of habit have not been attracted to the game, while even the converted have become a little disillusioned.

Freedom of contract has undoubtedly placed a strain on the resources of the country's top clubs, but at the end of the season that hard-won right may cause many players presently just missing out on regular first team places to find themselves surplus to requirements, as clubs look to trim their operating costs. For the struggling club, it might become temporarily expedient to sacrifice a little of the "strength in depth", and to give youthful enthusiasm a chance.

Whatever the decisions made in the board-rooms of Football League clubs in April and May, those in the game cannot expect the bankers to finance their operations indefinitely without hope of a good return. Supporters must realise that there has to be a limit to the size of the guarantees which directors can be expected to give to the bankers, in order to keep their clubs in operation, without jeopardising personal and family interests. We believe that the answer to all the game's problems can be solved by people within the game, but not unless they heed the oft-quoted maxim for business success by that noted Dickensian character, Mr. Micawber.

The Chairman's Column

EVENTS of the past ten days have been hectic to say the least. Matters speeded up rapidly when Brian Clough gave me permission to talk to Larry Lloyd about the possibility of his joining our Club in a managerial capacity. The Board of Directors feel that he will be the organiser we have been lacking out on the field. We have no doubts at all that he will do an excellent job for the club and will have no difficulty in picking up managerial expertise as he goes along.

While my business acumen teaches me to cut, cut, cut at the present time, we have again pushed the boat out to try to give the public what they want — a personality who can be easily identified with success. My former Financial Director, Mr. Graham Gorner, even before I took the chair, in his budget for the current financial year forecast a loss in the region of £150,000. We are bang on target for that loss, but do take note that, this year, we have had no money-spinning Cup games, no Joe Hinnigans to sell, and gates have taken a dramatic drop. The message is obvious that we should be pruning and not going out on a limb. All the Board of Directors ask in return is that the public backs us up to the full and helps us to progress to better times and gain promotion at the earliest possible opportunity.

We have all been highly delighted with the emergency operation carried out by Fred Eyre and Dave Brooks in lifting the team, and there has been far more effort evident of late. We can not expect to win every game, but it must not be for the want of trying.

All the luck in the world to Larry Lloyd. He knows as well as I do that you certainly need the lucky breaks in Soccer.

Enjoy today's game.
